

Recorded Books, LLC

COMPLETE AND UNABRIDGED SINCE 1979

Now iPod®, iPhone®, and MP3 Owners Can Download Audiobooks for Free at Their Public Library

Prince Frederick, MD, April 17, 2009— Recorded Books and NetLibrary, a division of OCLC, have joined together to bring libraries a wide collection of iPod-compatible downloadable audiobooks. Exclusive Recorded Books One-Click eAudio titles are available to public libraries in North America and other regions around the world. Using the NetLibrary Media Center, library patrons can search for, check out and download eAudiobooks to a computer or directly to their personal player. The One-Click Audio collection from Recorded Books includes contemporary works by authors such as Nevada Barr, Charlaine Harris, Carl Weber and Stephen King, along with classics and children's favorites. "We are proud of the broad range of patron-friendly content we offer libraries, and now we have additional eAudiobook titles especially for Apple iPod users," said Matt Walker, Recorded Books Vice President of Sales and Marketing. "The majority of One-Click Audio books are always available—there's no waiting list to download a new title. And with the new enhancements to the NetLibrary Media Center, library patrons can enjoy quick and easy downloading. It's just one click from media center to your player."

"Thousands of library users worldwide have discovered how easy it is to download an audiobook from the NetLibrary Media Center to their personal player." stated Chip Nilges, OCLC Vice President of Business Development. "The Media Center combines a simpler, more visual user interface with streamlined navigation to create a unique user experience. We've made it even better with faster downloads, automatic software updates and support for a wider range of portable devices."

Recorded Books is the world's largest independent publisher of unabridged audiobooks, OCLC, the parent company of NetLibrary, is a unique, non-profit, computer library service and research organization. Together, OCLC and Recorded Books provide eAudiobooks to more than 500 libraries and 16 library groups. Recorded Books brings over 2,000 downloadable titles to the market, including over 500 titles that are iPod-compatible.

About Recorded Books:

Recorded Books, LLC, a Hights Cross Communications company, produces and distributes unabridged audiobooks and other audio products to public and university libraries and schools on CD, cassette, and in digital products. Over 8,000 titles are available for adults, children, and young adults in English and Spanish languages narrated by professional, award-winning actors. Recorded Books also distributes music, educational lectures, independent films, and nonfiction films on DVD. Packaging is designed for high circulation. One-year warranty, cataloging, processing, and free MARC records are available. For more information, visit www.recordedbooks.com.

About OCLC

Founded in 1967 and headquartered in Dublin, Ohio, OCLC is a nonprofit library service and research organization that has provided computer-based cataloging, reference, resource sharing, eContent, preservation, library management and Web services to more than 60,000 libraries in 112 countries and territories. OCLC and its member libraries worldwide have created and maintain WorldCat, the world's richest online resource for finding library materials. For more information, visit www.oclc.org.

OCLC NetLibrary provides content and technical delivery solutions to institutional libraries, corporations and government agencies that facilitate the purchase, management and distribution of research, reference, digital learning and general interest content via Web-based technologies. NetLibrary's eContent solution is the most broadly adopted in the market, making more than 170,000 eBooks, 6,000 eJournals, 7,500 eAudiobooks, and 83 databases available through more than 16,000 libraries worldwide. For more information, visit www.oclc.org/netlibrary/.

Safe Harbor Statement:

This press release contains forward-looking statements which you can identify by terms such as “subject to”, “might”, and similar expressions intended to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements regarding the Company’s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions. Such statements include, without limitation, statements regarding the Company’s ability to refinance its term loans. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are based on assumptions and subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties. These risks and uncertainties may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from those expressed or implied by our forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause our actual results to differ materially from our forward-looking statements include, among others, factors identified by us in documents filed by us with the Securities and Exchange Commission including those set forth in our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007, under the caption “Risk Factors”. These uncertainties and other factors may cause our actual outcome of the transactions discussed in this release to be materially different from those expressed or implied by our forward-looking statements. In light of these uncertainties, there can be no assurance that the events and circumstances described in forward-looking statements contained in this press release will in fact occur. You should read this press release completely and with the understanding that our actual results may be materially different from what we expect. We will not update these forward-looking statements, even though our situation may change in the future. We qualify all of our forward-looking statements by these cautionary statements.